

AGENDA

Study-Visit for NMS-NGDOs on „Expert-Sending“

2nd – 7th of March 2008

Sunday, 2.3. 8 pm	Arrival in Cologne Evening: Joint dinner at Kolping House, Cologne
Monday, 3.3. 9:00 – 17:00	AGEH (Cologne) Welcoming remarks (Ulrike Hanlon, Personal Assistant to the Director) Introduction into AGEH (Michael Steeb, Director) Context and “ethic” discussion on „Expert Sending” with Michael Steeb, Hans Nirschel (AGEH, Department Manager), Joachim Lindau (Consultant, former Programm Director Bread for the World, Germany) and Cliff Allum (FORUM ids, Great Britain) Definitions on „Expert Sending” (Michael Steeb, Director) European and non-european Expert-sending systems (Cliff Allum) AGEH as a Service Provider (Ulrike Hanlon) The law for development assistance (Joachim Lindau)
Tuesday, 4.3. 9:00 – 17:00	AGEH (Cologne) Guided Tour through the headoffice (Ulrike Hanlon) Advertisement (Michael Detscher) Selection Process (Michael van Lay) Project Design, clarification of expectations (Ludger Reining) Human Resource Development (Hans Nirschl) Social Security (part I): Tackling with personal and political crisis (Hans Nirschl)
Wednesday, 5.3. 10:00 – 17:00	Morning: train from Cologne to Bonn (8:49 – 9:25) DED (Bonn) Introduction into DED (Günter Könsgen, Deputy Director) “Weltwärts” (“Towards the World”) – a very new Programme for young adults (Mrs. Schüler, Programme Coordinator) Advertisement & Selection Process (Mrs. Hancock, Person in Charge) Social Security (part II): Crisis Management (Mr. Siekmann, Head of Unit) Impact oriented Planning, Monitoring and Evaluation (Mrs. Abbenante, Person in Charge) Programming and Controlling of Country Programmes (Mr. Siekmann, Head of Unit Near East/Central Asia) Discussion of DED activities in NMS target countries (Mr. Siekmann, Mrs. Liebermann, Mrs. Kraus; Project Desk) Evening: travel with the night train from Cologne to Vienna (20:06)

