ARE WE ON THE RIGHT TRACK? PARADIGM REVIEW BY CSOs AS DEVELOPMENT ACTORS

Prague, Czech Republic, 14th – 16th May 2008

Friday 16th May 2008

What is the role of Development NGOs ?

What do we need to do
to be on the right track ?

Summary of Approaches,
by Mike Mathias (Luxemburg, Cercle de Cooperation des ONG)

NGOs are working for Change, therefore they need to tackle power

How do we engage in the European election process?

How do we engage in local / national election processes?

Emerging Economies (BRIC) want their part of resources

How do we tackle with climate justice?

How do we tackle with the limits to growths?

MDGs are a shame as they make us accept that half of the poor stay poor

How do we bring back a rights based approach to development?

How do consider making gender equality a real priority of our work?

Awareness for the necessity of global fairness makes people accept to change

How do we promote well-being instead of income generation?

How do we strengthen global education in our work?

Building coalitions with other CSO supposes that we learn to work with diversity

How can we promote diversity among NGOs?

How do we engage in coalition with civil society?
