

The process of placement

Qualifications in demand:

- agricultural economic and agricultural science, marketing for agricultural products
- business economy, business administration, political economy, trade and industry, commerce, administration, micro financing,
- medicine, physical therapy, medical care, public health,
- technology, engineering technology, handicrafts,
- sociology, political science, education science, vocational training, ethnology, journalism, sustainable tourism, gender questions
- water experts for: drinking water supplies, waste water disposal and hygienic issues
- experts for conflict sensitive advisory, civil conflict transformation and human security

Requirements for development officers:

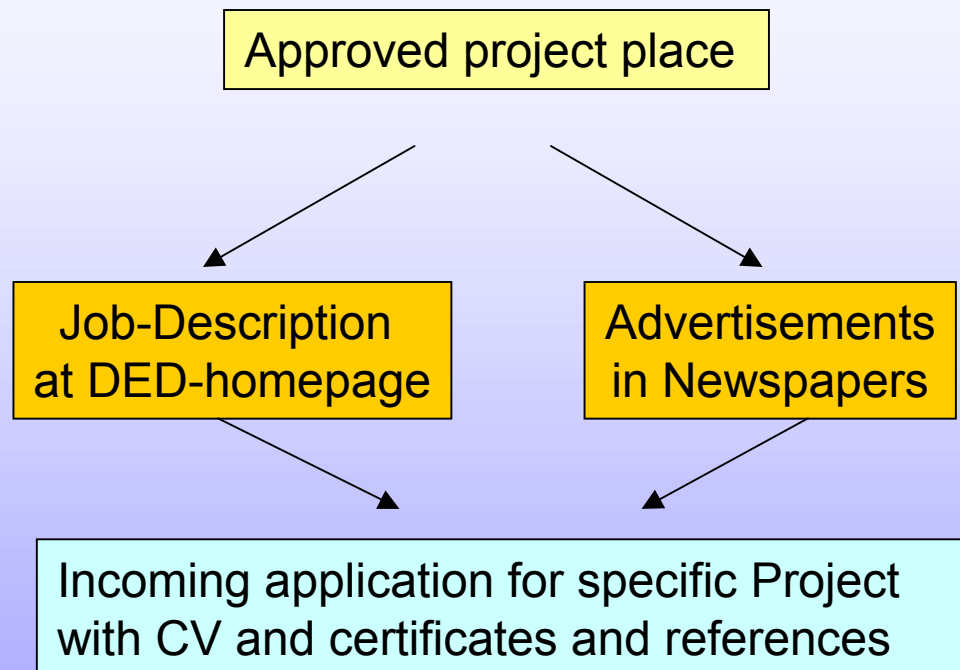

- at least 2 years of professional experience
- good language skills in either English, French, Spanish or Portuguese, and knowledge of the German language
- experience in advice and consultancy practice
- knowledge and experience in project management, monitoring and evaluation
- intercultural communication skills
- reference to development cooperation

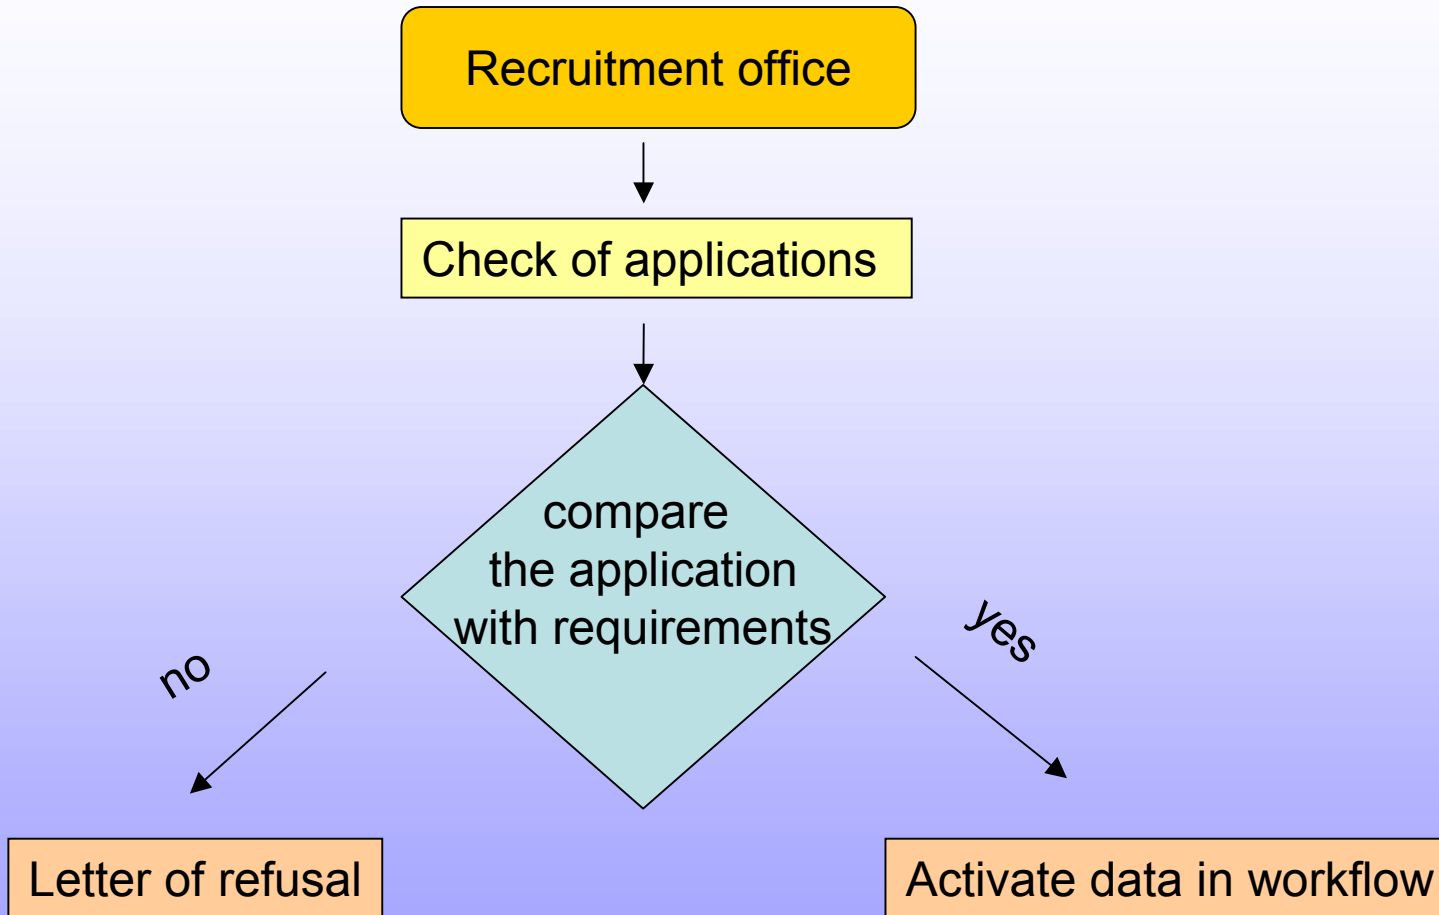

Requirements for young professionals:

- certificates of professional education or studies
- interest in development cooperation
- good language skills
(English, French, Spanish or Portuguese)
- good knowledge of the German language
- maximum age: 28 years

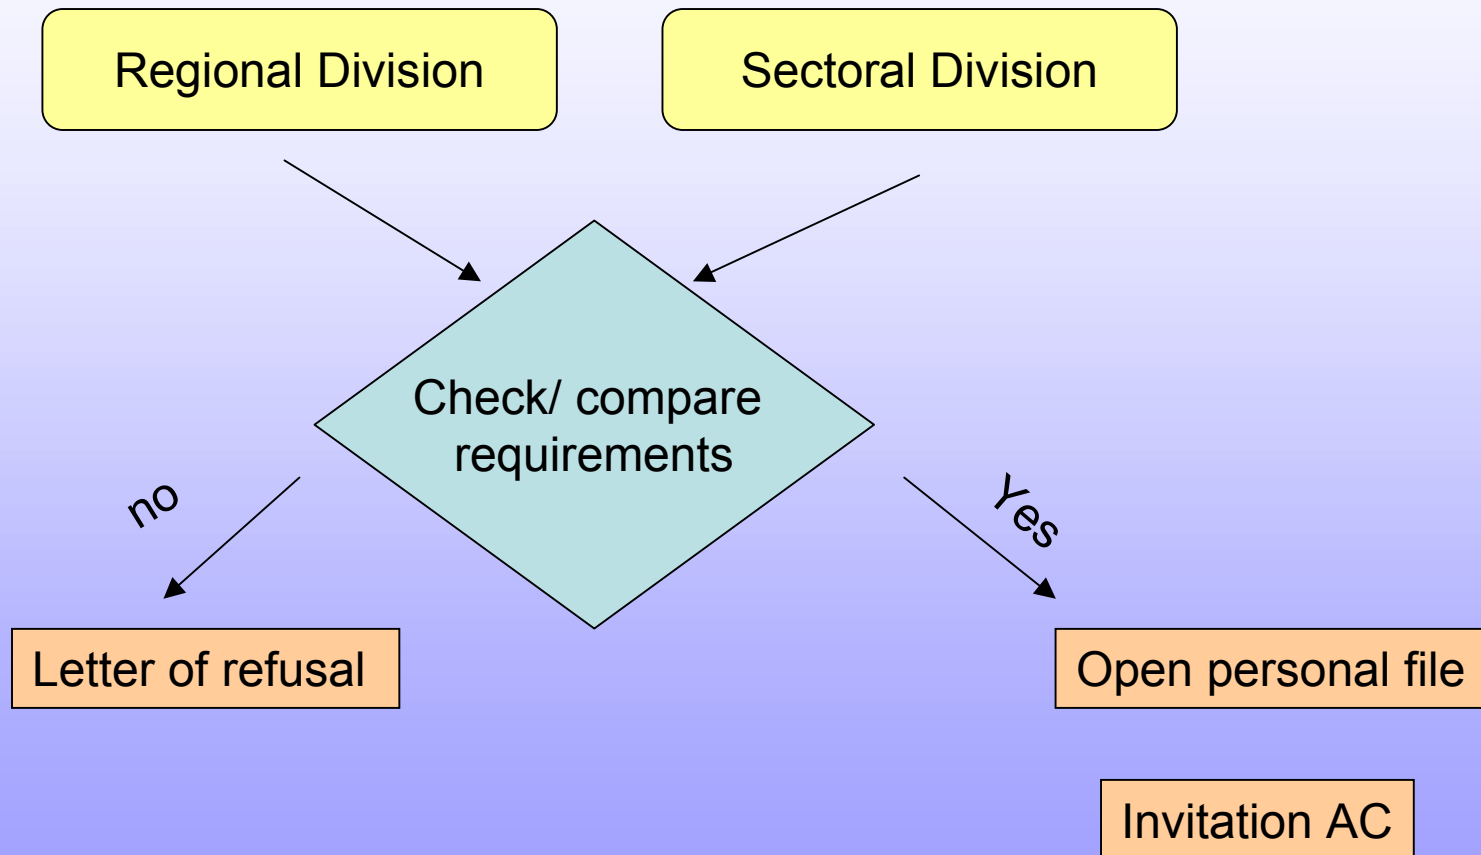

Duration: 1 year and 1 month preparation

Workflow overview

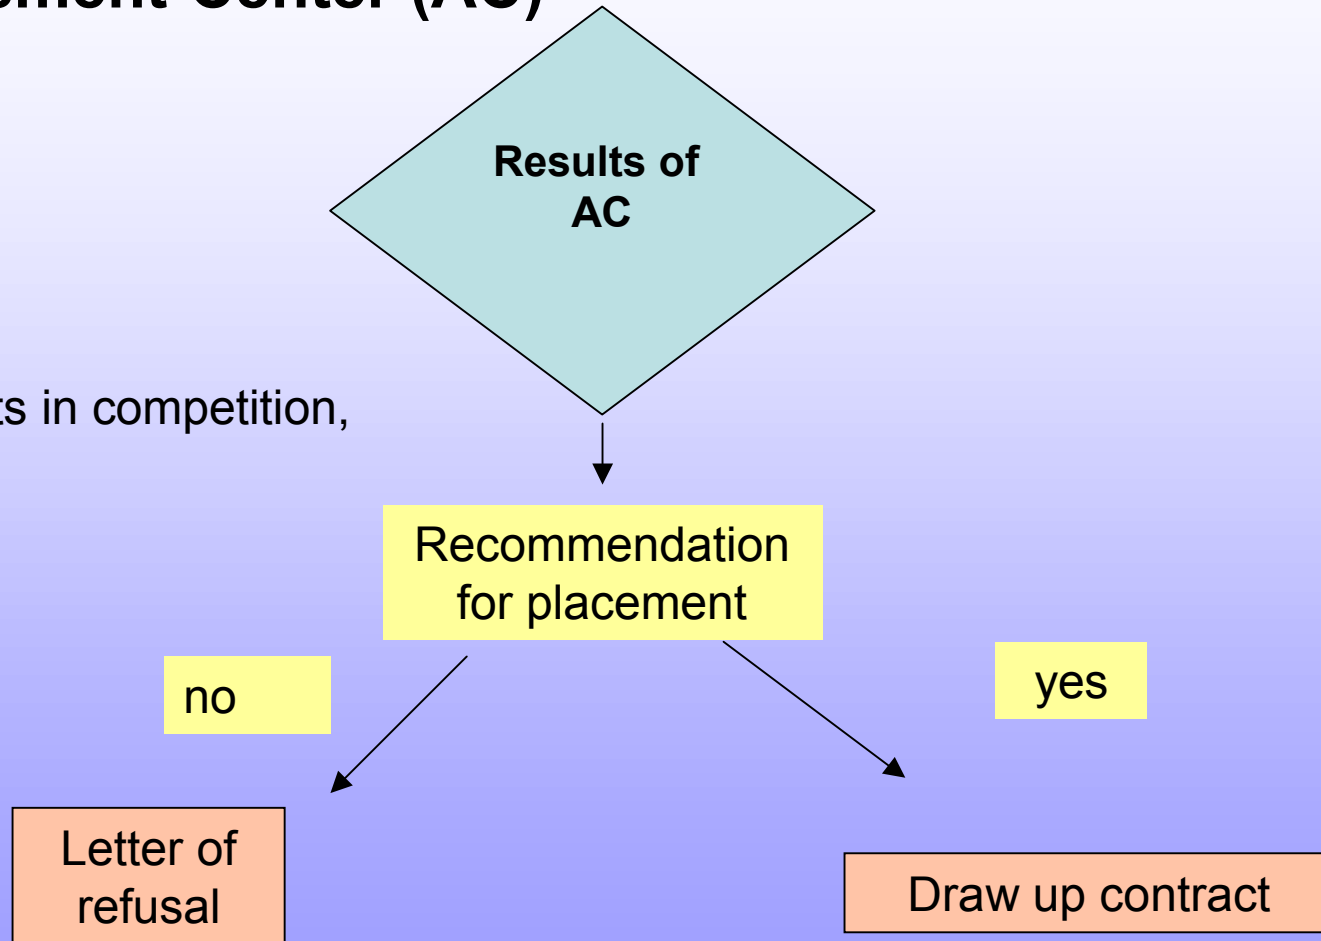

Check by Regional und Sectoral Divisions

Assessment-Center (AC)

- 2-3 applicants in competition, if possible

Medical Check

